The best option for whole-acre success

Growers can expect advanced agronomy insight, in-depth financial knowledge and practical payment strategies. Nutrien Financial orchestrates the delivery of financing solutions and custom cash-management strategies with practical, profitable features such as:

- Payment due dates matched to cash flows to support optimal marketing opportunities.
- Predictable interest rates for year-round confidence.
- Our rate-lock feature for future planning and purchasing ease.
- Prompt payment incentives: no interest on balances paid on or before the first statement's payment due date.
- Optimize your budget objectives.

How we stand out in our field

We understand the cyclical nature of your operation and provide convenient access to the capital you need—when you need it. We form meaningful relationships with the people partnering in the field with you to deliver suitable solutions through:

- Lasting relationships built on trust, reliability and personalized service.
- Access to global market knowledge and resources via a local network.
- Streamlined processes such as easy credit applications, electronic signatures for renewals, automatic renewal methods and real-time account management.
- Unwavering commitment to growers, their communities and the agriculture industry.
